

Appropriations for education-related programs and support in pandemic relief bills and proposals

Sen. Murray's Coronavirus Child Care

	CARES Act	Heroes Act (HR 6800) (House Democrats' Coronavirus Response and Education Relief Act (CCERA))	Sen. Murray's Coronavirus Child Care	HEALS Act (Senate Republican bill)
Relief for states and localities - could support education	$150 billion	$915 billion
Education Stabilization Fund (split among K-12, higher ed, governors)	$30.75 billion, split among K-12, higher education, and Governors' Emergency Relief Fund.	$90 billion for Education Stabilization Fund: about $58 billion for K-12, $27 billion for public higher education.	$345 billion for the CARES Act Education Stabilization Fund, with $175 billion for elementary and secondary education, $132 billion for the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund, and $33 billion for the Governors' Emergency Relief Fund.	$105 billion for education: about $70 billion for K-12, with 1/3 released immediately and 2/3 reserved for schools at least partially reopen to in-person education, and a proportion reserved for private schools based on their proportion of students in the state; about $29 billion for higher education institutions; about $5.2 billion for governors' relief funds.
Higher Education programs		$10.15 billion in direct emergency funding for institutions of higher education that have suffered severe financial losses due to COVID-19, including $1.7 billion for Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Tribal Colleges and Universities, and Minority Serving Institutions. It also creates the Institutional Stabilization Program to help cash-strapped institutions.		$40 million for student aid administration
Specific K-12 programs			$12.9 billion for K-12 education programs that includes $11 billion for Title I state grants, $300 million for the Title I Migrant Education program, and $100 million for the Title I neglected and delinquent youth program; $1 billion for the English language learners program; and $500 million for the

Appropriations for education-related programs and support in pandemic relief bills and proposals

Sen. Murray's Coronavirus Child Care

	CARES Act	Heroes Act (HR 6800) (House Democrat)	and Education Relief Act (CCERA)	HEALS Act (Senate Republican bill)
Special education			$11.9 billion for special education, with $11 billion for Part B state grants, $500 million for the infants and toddler program, and $400 million for preschool programs.
Other education programs			$4 billion for the e-rate program to increase connectivity at schools and for students and educators; $1 billion for adult education; $1 billion for CTE.	$65 million for Institute for Education Sciences; $8 million for program management; $7 million for Office of Inspector General.
child care	$3.5 billion	$7 billion for CCDBG	$50 billion through CCDBG	$15 billion - $5 billion for CCDBG, $10 billion for a new program through CCDBG
Institute for Museum and Library Services	$50 million	$5 million
Head Start	$750 million
Workforce Development				$950 million for adult and youth training.