ASCD IN ACTION

1991 ASCD PHOTO CONTEST WINNERS

Once again, ASCD is proud to announce the winners of the annual ASCD photo contest. We had many interesting and arresting images to judge, which made the job very difficult. But we managed to come up with the five winners. They are:

First place: Sr. Caroljean Willie, Indiantown, Florida ($500)

Second place: Howard Menikoff, Richmond Hill, New York ($400)

Third place: Mark Bealer, Miamisburg, Ohio ($300)

Fourth place: Fenwick W. English, Cincinnati, Ohio ($200)

Fifth place: Mark Bealer, Miamisburg, Ohio ($100)

Honorable mentions go to Carol Hanson, Mason, Michigan; Ted Barash, N. Ferrisburg, Vermont; Bob Vaughn, Deer Park, Texas; Diana Olencki, Wooddruff, South Carolina; Stacey Myers, Cridersville, Ohio; Anne-Marie Welsh, Erie, Pennsylvania; Mike Ogburn, Louisville, Kentucky; Timothy Baylor, Pontiac, Michigan; and Robert Jones, Hamburg, New York.

All of the photographs entered in the contest may appear in future issues of Educational Leadership (published photos will be credited to the photographer). Thanks to all who entered—we really appreciate your participation!

Sister Caroljean Willie, S.C., of the Hope Rural School in Indiantown, Florida, created this first-place image. Hope Rural School is a school founded primarily for the children of migrant farmworkers located in the midst of orange groves and farms in rural Florida. In the photo, two students share a quiet moment in the fields on a nature walk to identify wildflowers.

TAKE NOTE

Join the Network for Restructured Schools, which promotes discussion on restructuring issues and cooperation among administrators and school leaders at both school district and university levels. The network solicits information on school restructuring and seeks to communicate about particular concerns in school restructuring. For information, contact:

TAKE ACTION

ASCD networks are an ideal way for educational professionals to exchange ideas and grow professionally. The 34 ASCD networks include such diverse areas of interest as High Schools Networking for Change, Interdisciplinary Curriculum, and Manipulative Mathematics. The ASCD Networks Program invites interested ASCD members to submit proposals for new networks between May 1st and September 6th of this year. Please contact Agnes Crawford at ASCD's Department of Field Services for information and a proposal form: 703-549-9110, ext. 506 or 502.
