

About the Author

Eric Jensen is a former teacher who has taught at all levels, from elementary school through university, and is deeply committed to making a positive, significant, and lasting difference in the way we learn. His academic background includes a B.A. in English and an M.A. in organizational development, and he is currently completing his Ph.D. in human development. He has authored 30 books, including Teaching with the Brain in Mind, Teaching with Poverty in Mind, Turnaround Tools for the Teenage Brain, Enriching the Brain, Student Success Secrets, and Super Teaching.

In 1981, Jensen cofounded SuperCamp, the United States' largest and most innovative academic enrichment program, now with more than 60,000 graduates. As a leader in the mind/brain movement, Jensen makes regular visits to neuroscience labs and is a member of the invitation-only Society for Neuroscience. Currently, he conducts staff development and summer in-depth trainings and speaks at conferences nationwide. For information on speaking dates or in-depth trainings, contact diane@jlcbrain.com or go to www.jensenlearning.com. And visit the website for this book: www.toolsforengagement.com.